

Instructions for submitting a Tender to Purchase:

Below are the steps and instructions to be followed for completing tender and tender envelope and for submitting the tender in a Sale of Land by Public Tender. These must be followed to ensure these items are prepared and submitted in accordance with the Municipal Tax Sales Rules: Failure to comply can result in a rejection of the tender:

1. Tender Amount

The minimum tender amount for a property is the amount advertised as the 'Cancellation Price' (taxes, penalties, interest, administration charges etc) at time of advertising. Your tender amount must be this amount or more. Should your tender be accepted as the successful tender, you will also be required to pay 'accumulated taxes' being any further taxes, penalties, interest, administration charges etc that have accumulated since the time of advertising along with Land Transfer Tax and any applicable HST.

2. Tender to Purchase Form (Form 7)

All tenders must be on Tender to Purchase Form (Form 7).

- b. All information is required to be typewritten or legibly handwritten in ink.
- c. Information must be accurately completed and provided in full.

3. Deposit (Must be at least 20% of your tender)

- a. Your tender must be accompanied by a deposit of at least 20 per cent (20%) of your tender amount.
- b. The deposit needs to be rounded to the 'higher cent' where applicable. (For example: if your tender is $10,000.01 then 20% of $10,000.01 equals $2,000.002 and you must round up, so the deposit will be at least $2,000.01).
