

Bethel Lake

Lakes with phosphorus levels greater than 20 $\mu\text{g/L}$ are classified as eutrophic lakes, which are highly productive and more susceptible to nuisance algal blooms

* Indicates samples analyzed at private laboratories